What is iniquity according to the Bible? - GotQuestions.org

When we flirt with sin, we fall for the lie that we can control it. But like a cute baby monkey can grow to be a wild, out-of-control primate, sin that seems small and harmless at first can take control before we know it. When we give ourselves over to a sinful lifestyle, we are committing iniquity. Sin has become our god rather than the Lord (Romans 6:14).

What Does Psalm 51:5 Teach? - Ancient Road Publications

The argument is that David in this Psalm claims to have been born with sin (though the text itself says in sin). The conclusion from this is that this sin must refer to Adam's sin which he had inherited, (so they say).

MAN is NOT "BORN in SIN" - QUESTIONS ANSWERED

It does not say that he was "born in sin," or born with an "Adamic nature", even though that is the way many interpret it. It does not say that his mother's sinfulness was passed on to him when he was conceived either, although some may wish to interpret it that way. There is no scriptural proof in Psalm 51:5 that we are born with a sin nature.
