Thomas Merton, speaking of Julian of Norwich, writes, 'Rather than 'Sister', one calls her the 'Lady Julian''. One can suppose that she would have dictated her book. Yet the dictation would have been such that the secretary would not have been permitted to change even a comma. Her language has the personal seal of a soul, of a personality.

All shall be well. Julian of Norwich is an anchoress a woman who has set herself apart for God and lives isolated in a cell. Like her contemporaries of 1373, she is Roman Catholic and believes that the last rites give special sanctifying grace and strengthen a sick person bodily and spiritually at death.
