For 2016, the cap amount is $1,960 for physical and speech therapy combined and $1,960 for occupational therapy. The cap does not reset for each diagnosis. So, even if a patient seeks therapy related to multiple diagnoses over the course of the benefit period, all of those services would count toward that patient's limit. Still, to ensure the cap does not prevent Medicare patients from Medicare for Physical Therapy: The Definitive Guide | WebPT

Medicare coverage for outpatient physical, occupational, and speech therapy services does not depend on a patient's potential for improvement from the therapy but rather on the beneficiary's need for skilled care.
