twelve memorial stones from the jordan Joshua 4:1-24 1. When all the people had crossed the Jordan, the Lord said to Joshua, 2. Now choose twelve men, one from each tribe. 3. Tell them, Take twelve stones from the very place where the priests are standing in the middle of the Jordan. Joshua 4 HCSB - The Memorial Stones - Bible Gateway

The Memorial Stones - After the entire nation had finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD spoke to Joshua: Choose 12 men from the people, one man for each tribe, and command them: Take 12 stones from Memorial Stone - biblehub.com

Each tribe laid its stone on the memorial heap in Gilgal. Each man should add his stone to the memorial everywhere and always rising to the greater deliverance Christ works for us. If we should take special measures to remember our mercies in general, so most of all should we do so to remember the infinite mercy of redemption. What do the 12 stones UNDER the Jordan River mean?

This 12 stone memorial would perish in the waters of the Jordan, just as the Egyptian army had perished in the waters of the Red Sea so many years before. This 12 stones was a memorial to God's justice. The typological lessons in this account provide an eternal, but disheartening, perspective.

The Importance of Memorials | Grace Bible Church

The Importance of Memorials, Selected Scriptures. Today is the traditional day for Memorial Day. Back in 1971 it was changed from May 30 to the last Monday in May. I guess the particular calendar day is only important because Diane was born on that day and consequently her birthday was always celebrated with a picnic. That is something we still try to do. I suppose in a large way that is what

Hands On Bible Teacher: Memorial Stones

The stones were picked up from the midst of the Jordan River, from the place where the Priest feet had stood. Joshua picked 12 men (one from each tribe) to pick up a rock out of the Jordan and carry it on his shoulders all the way to Gilgal. The rocks were then turned into a Memorial for the Hebrews. The stones would help remind the Hebrews of all that God had done for them.
