After some tests, we discovered that my father had a brain tumor. That instantly spelled the end of the golden era and the beginning of a rather painful period. Watching someone who was strong become weak and bedridden, suffer seizures, and eventually drift away eats away at you. My friend tried to say losing custody of her child hurts ...

She knew my mother was everything to me.. at first I didnt even know if I wanted to help her after that.. but in my brain I know its just because she was hurting.. I just dont think wallowing in self pity is the way to go.
