Legal Writing Tips - Michael Froomkin

Legal Writing Tips, Basics. Omit needless words.
Ruthlessly. See Strunk & White, The Elements of Style, for details. Short sentences are better than long ones.
Always. There is a presumption that the first sentence in each paragraph should be the topic sentence. Do not overcome this presumption without a reason. The passive voice should be avoided like the plague. It should be avoided not.

Creating a Writing Sample | Duke University School of Law

A writing sample should demonstrate your ability to analyze a legal issue. Consequently, the sample should contain a set of facts, a discussion of the relevant case or statutory law, and a conclusion drawn from the application of the law to the facts. Many first year students use the memorandum they prepared for their legal writing course in the fall.
